A few people have decisively influenced how we think about quantum computation and quantum information. For many enjoyable discussions which have helped us shape and refine our views, MAN thanks Carl Caves, Chris Fuchs, Gerard Milburn, John Preskill and Ben Schumacher, and ILC thanks Tom Cover, Umesh Vazirani, Yoshi Yamamoto, and Bernie Yurke.

Thanks to the folks at Cambridge University Press for their help turning this book from an idea into reality. Our especial thanks go to our thoughtful and enthusiastic editor Simon Capelin, who shepherded this project along for more than three years, and to Margaret Patterson, for her timely and thorough copy-editing of the manuscript.

Parts of this book were completed while MAN was a Tolman Prize Fellow at the California Institute of Technology, a member of the T-6 Theoretical Astrophysics Group at the Los Alamos National Laboratory, and a member of the University of New Mexico Center for Advanced Studies, and while ILC was a Research Staff Member at the IBM Almaden Research Center, a consulting Assistant Professor of Electrical Engineering at Stanford University, a visiting researcher at the University of California Berkeley Department of Computer Science, a member of the Los Alamos National Laboratory T-6 Theoretical Astrophysics Group, and a visiting researcher at the University of California Santa Barbara Institute for Theoretical Physics. We also appreciate the warmth and hospitality of the Aspen Center for Physics, where the final page proofs of this book were finished.

MAN and ILC gratefully acknowledge support from DARPA under the NMRQC research initiative and the QUIC Institute administered by the Army Research Office. We also thank the National Science Foundation, the National Security Agency, the Office of Naval Research, and IBM for their generous support.
